REBEL COOPER BRINGS HOME INITIAL VICTORY

(Continued From Fourth Page.) the pan to catch Mooers, but McDer-mott caught the ball and prevented the play, as the ground rules gave Mooers the base. Red then pounded out a long fly to Simmons, and Cooper, who had advanced on the previous play, came home. Schacht replaced Stryker and walked Hanford, who immediately stole second. But Hartsell formed and the frame was over. mediately stole second. But Hartsell Schaeht escaped trouble in the third is a result of a fast double play, and skin in the fourth, when, after Clemcase in the fourth, when, after Clemens and McDermott had hit safely. Hanford grounded an easy one to Fisher for the third out. There was nothing doing again in the fifth although Elbel was walted and sacrificed to second, but the sixth brought the runs that like the victory.

Bruce popped to Fisher as an opener, but Repel Cooper came through with his second hit and remeating.

Repel Cooper came through with second hit and romped down to ond when Clemens drove a second e one through second base. McDersafe one through second base. McDermott pourded a high bounder over third and every one was safe. Hanford's smash resulted in McDermott being doubled out at second, but Cooper scored and Hanford was safe on first. He and Clemens worked the double-steal successfully, and Clemens counted, Hanford bringing up on second.

Hack Elbe', the big first baseman who has shown some tendency to come through with a bingle when one is needed, now was up. He selected one and sent it far into left field for two sacks, Hanford ringing the beit. Hartself popped one to Fisher and the side was retired.

After two were out in the seventh.

the first double plays while Rochester made one during the contest.

For the most part it was an excellent game and one which showed that Billy Smith slowly is getting his men into condition. Arms still are in bad shape, and until they improve its probable that the rearranged line-up will be used. The team appears to much better advantage as a result of the shifts, Mooers looking especially promising at short.

1. P. I. Has Little Trouble Defeating Hampden-Sidney in Second Game of Series.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.!

BLACKSBURG, VA., April 20.—In the second game of the series, the Techs defeated Hampden-Sidney this afternoon by a score of S to 5. The game was slow, and both teams hit freely. The Techs got eleven hits while the visitors captured six. Barksdale, who started the game for Hampden-Sidney was connected with for six hits, which resulted in five runs in the fifth inning. Morton relieved him in the sixth.

Iludson occupied the mound for V. P. L. and was as sleady as a rock until the seventh period, when he weakened just a trifle. He rec vered in time, however, to pull himself out of the hole. Hudson and Olde did good work with the stick. The Tech infeld was not quite up to the standard, but it never got into serious trouble. Score by innings:
